

CFRW AMBASSADOR PROGRAM

CALIFORNIA FEDERATION OF REPUBLICAN WOMEN

The “Ambassadors Program” has been around since 1974 when our first Legislative Advocate, Nancy Ehlers, was appointed and the first annual “Advocacy Workshop” was held. She was a full-time volunteer Lobbyist representing CFRW in Sacramento. This was in response to a request from Governor Ronald Reagan.

The “Ambassadors Program” was established to help in the funding of our legislative program to include Advocacy Workshops. Historically, the Ambassadors Program has been funded by a small group of CFRW members who paid $250 per year and were thanked for their generous contribution to “the program” at three receptions a year.

In 2006 the membership approved a change to the Standing Rules to allow for a four-tiered program. The levels are “Platinum Ambassador” at $500 per year, “Golden Eagle Ambassador” at $250 per year, “Golden Bear Ambassador” at $100 per year, and “Ambassador” level at $50 per year. Platinum and Golden Eagle ambassadors may pay in two installments. As in the past, there are perks for those who join the Ambassador Program. “Platinum Ambassadors” receive one free lunch at conferences.

All “Ambassadors” have preferred seating. “Platinum Ambassadors” and “Golden Eagle Ambassadors” have free admission to all Ambassador Events. “Golden Bear Ambassadors” and “Ambassadors” can attend Ambassador Events at a reduced rate.

All Ambassadors receive identifying name badges and will be recognized in the CFRW program.

Associate members may also join the program. All levels of donor support have the option of receiving the State Bulletin and Capitol Update.

Thank you for your support of the CFRW ADVOCACY PROGRAM.
